

Young Millionaire And Abusive Woman Witness Instant Karma Down At The Fast Food Joint

David Sherriman, a previously homeless young man from (Toronto, Canada) was unexpectedly thrust into the limelight recently due to a relatively minor incident, which occurred at his local fast food restaurant. David was queuing to collect a large order he had phoned through earlier when the woman in front of him was taking a long time to decide what she wanted. He politely asked if he could go in front of her, while she made up her mind but she was having none of it.

In front of everyone, she began to shout at David accusing him of pushing in. She continued to slate him over his bad manners, citing his impertinence and disrespect and she even criticised the way he was dressed, calling him a “no-good down and out.” However, you could have heard a pin drop when a woman at the end of the queue, who recognised David shouted out, “That’s David Sherriman, he’s come to collect his food order for the homeless shelter.”

The woman who had derided David, hurling a constant barrage of insults and abuse, was speechless. In fact, she became so embarrassed when everyone began jeering her, she hurriedly left the restaurant without placing an order. Everyone clapped loudly as she made her hasty getaway, in what was undoubtedly a case of instant karma.

Did someone deliberately leave a note?

It transpires that David had spent over a year at the homeless shelter, after being evicted from his flat, which his landlord had sold to developers. He spent months sleeping on friend’s sofas and floors before losing his job as a hospital porter. With no income and nowhere permanent to live, he found himself living at the shelter. He made many friends amongst the other homeless people but struck up a real bond with a 52-year-old long-term volunteer named Mike.

Mike eventually helped David find a job as a kitchen assistant at a large upmarket hotel, which was the turning point in David’s life. However, it was not as anyone might have expected, and not least David himself. One evening, when the waiters were clearing away the tables and bringing all the dirty plates and cutlery into the kitchen, David notice a screwed up piece of paper on one of the plates. Without thinking too much of it, he quickly straightened out the note and read the words, “Grand Mondial Casino.”

At that moment, the chef walked into the kitchen so he hastily put the note in his back pocket and carried on with his dish-washing duties. At the end of his evening shift, he took out the note and read it again. Just below the words, “Grand Mondial Casino” was written “150 free spins”. Not being a gambler, he was intrigued about the free spins so next day, he asked Mike what it meant. Mike looked up the casino on his laptop and showed it to David. Sure enough there it was. “Sign up at Grand Mondial Casino and get 150 free spins.”

How Mike's laptop became the gateway to riches

David said at that point he couldn't stop dreaming about winning. The pay-outs on the slots in this online casino were phenomenal. It was possible to win over a million dollars and some people had even won over $4 million. $4 million is a life-changing amount of money for anyone, let alone a homeless man with no prospects. "I just imagined what I could do with all that money", he said. "I could buy a really nice house, a luxury car, take vacations to exotic places", he added.

David explained that he had to persuade his friend Mike to let him use his laptop so that he could register for the free offer. Mike was very reluctant at first but when David offered to share any winnings with him, he agreed. When you sign up on the Grand Mondial Casino website you have to deposit a minimum of $10. This is to ensure your age and identify can be checked against your credit card details. You have to be over 18 years old to sign up, it's the law.

Once inside the website David went through the usual verification process, which only takes a few minutes, and then checked out some of the winner testimonials. He said he was staggered to see just how many people had won fortunes on this online casino. It appears, on average someone wins a big jackpot every 12 minutes. One man said he won $3.98 million whilst playing on his cell phone in a bar. Another winner said she won $4.2 million using a tablet, whilst she was sitting at her kitchen table waiting for the kettle to boil. It seems anyone can win at any time.

Two big life-changing wins in one day

David went straight to the slots and chose the "Book of Dead" slot to use his free spins. Sometime later he hit the jackpot and collected over $39,000. He then went over to the Mega Moolah slot and within minutes collected a massive $1.87 million. "It's amazing," said David. "I had a strange feeling I was going to win right from the moment I found that note at work."

So, how is the Grand Mondial Casino able to pay out so much money? Apparently, all the slots are linked to an arbitrage algorithm, which trades on over 70 stock exchanges all over the world, generating millions of dollars in profit every single day. The casino never actually loses and yet generates thousands of big winners every year. The system was developed by a young software engineer who now owns the casino, for which he used to work.

For 26-year old David Sherriman it has all been a major life-changing experience. However, instead of going off and spending all his winnings on houses, cars and other luxury items, David has stunned everyone. As promised, he split his winnings with friend Mike. Now they both now run the homeless shelter full-time and spend their own money feeding and clothing the homeless. They also jointly own a small hotel where they offer paid work to the homeless, which helps them get their lives back on track. David was buying food for their guests when the incident in the fast-food restaurant brought the story out into the open.

You don't need to have any special skills to win on the slots

In a recent interview David said, "It only seemed right that I should try to help others because if it hadn't been for the shelter and the kindness of Mike, God knows where I would have ended up. I'm just so glad I can pay something back in return." He added, "The Grand Mondial Casino has made it all possible for me and to be honest it could also change the life of anyone. Let's face it, you don't need to have any special skills to win the slots."

The Mondial Casino is licensed in (Canada) and is still offering the 150 free spins for every new registration but for a limited time only. Simply deposit $10, verify your details and who knows what fate hold could have in store for you. How would you spend your winnings?
