

7 Genius Tech Gadgets That Will Sell Out Before Thanksgiving!"

If there's one thing we know about guys of all ages, they absolutely love gadgets, and it's no secret why this should be. It's also true that men never really grow up and will surround themselves with all kinds of amusing "toys". What else is true is that many of these toys just happen to be very useful, time-saving, money-saving and downright convenient. Men's fascination with gadgets goes way back to their childhood when discovering new toys triggered real excitement.

However, for some boys, this was never enough. Eventually, they just had to know how these amazing gadgets worked, and so many of them ended up being dismantled or disassembled, which just added to the fun. Now, with so many new tech gadgets available, men are able to relive their childhoods or even prolong them. So, in the true spirit of "toys for boys", we have listed 7 of the coolest and most useful gadgets that men of a certain age will know they just have to own... but be warned. These are all selling out ultra-fast!

1. KeySmart – What to do about that bunch of keys

Do you keep all your keys on a key chain? Many guys do but the problem with a bunch of keys in your pocket is that they are not only uncomfortable, especially when you sit down, they also tend to rip holes in your pockets. So, unless you go around carrying a bag or a case to put them in when you're out and about, what's the best solution? Well, there wasn't one until now. KeySmart is a simple little device that turns your bulky bunch of keys into a handy, pocket-safe tool. It's easy to see why this one is selling so fast.

- Real quick and easy to assemble
- Keys fold away conveniently
- Fits into your pocket comfortably
- Can fit several useful, optional accessories
- Holds up to 8 keys plus car key fob
- Makes an ideal gift for anyone

2. FIXD – Tells you if there is a problem with your car

We all love our cars right? We rely and depend on them so when something goes wrong it can be quite worrying. Even more so when you don't know for sure what the problem is. For example, when that "check engine" light comes on it could indicate any number of problems and the only way you will know is to get a mechanic to take a look. Hopefully, the mechanic will be someone you can trust. FIXD is a gadget everyone wants because you simply plug it into your car's computer, download the app on your phone and it tells you instantly what's wrong with your car. This is one of the best-selling gadgets of the year.

- Plugs into your car's computer and diagnoses all problems instantly
- The free app tells you what the problem is in plain language, not codes
- Never get hoodwinked by some unscrupulous mechanic ever again

- Will work on any vehicle that was manufactured after 1996
- Will also tell you when scheduled maintenance and oil changes are due
- Lets you turn off the engine warning light if the problem is not serious

3. Superboost WiFi – Now get a strong WiFi signal anywhere in your home

You know how frustrating it can be when you can't get a good WiFi signal in your basement or your garage. In some locations, you can't even get a strong signal in your bedrooms and it's all down to your router, which was given to you by your broadband service provider. Forget about paying them more bucks for a faster service, instead simply boost the signal so you can get fast, quality WiFi all over the house and even in the backyard. Just plug in the Superboost WiFi gadget into any AC outlet and you'll be amazed at the difference. Special introductory price.

- Simply plugs into any AC outlet right out of the box
- Eliminates WiFi "dead zones" in and around the house
- Uses proven "signal repeater transmission" technology
- Ideal for anyone who wants to watch movies or videos
- Low one-off payment, not a monthly subscription fee
- 100% full money-back guarantee if not completely satisfied

4. Dodow – What's a good night's sleep worth?

For one reason or another, millions of people just cannot get a good night's sleep. For some people, it seems impossible to switch off and fall into a deep, peaceful sleep, which means they have to face the pressures of each day feeling tired and exhausted. Sleep is just too important to ignore and is absolutely vital for the health of your body, soul and mind. If you're not sleeping well, despite trying all kinds of "remedies", then this neat little device could help you doze off within minutes.

- Completely safe and natural with no harmful side-effects
- Gentle blue pulsating light helps you focus your thoughts and breathing pattern
- Designed to help you relax your mind and body naturally
- Reduces brain wave activity, allowing you to fall asleep quicker
- Breaks the negative sleep cycle and helps restore the sleep balance
- Offers a permanent solution to your sleeping problems

5. Neck Hammock – Live life without a pain in the neck

In the US, around 20% of all adults will experience neck pain. The number of men over the age of 40 is the largest group affected. Are you able to move your head so that you can see your shoulders either side without feeling any pain? If you feel any degree of pain whatsoever then now is the time to take action. Leaving this condition untreated will only ensure the pain gets worse. And there's nothing worse than trying to turn your head to look for oncoming traffic when you are driving or stopping at a junction. This "must-have" neck hammock could save your life!

- Simple, portable and offers fast relief from neck pain
- Easy to use with no batteries, no wires and no fuss
- Can be fitted to a door, rail or pole anytime and anywhere
- Just 10-15 minutes a day will relieve pain, stress and anxiety
- Hand washable and folds quickly for easy storage
- Comes with travel bag, eye mask and Do Not Disturb sign

6. PhotoStick – A smart photo saving device like no other

We don't tend to think of our computer's hard drive crashing or malfunctioning but it happens. Computers can also get stolen, damaged or lost and then what happens to all your precious photos and videos? Backing up image files is a laborious task, at least it used to be. This should be called the "Smart" Photo Stick because this little gadget represents an absolute technological breakthrough. It seeks out all your photos and videos, wherever they are on your computer, and saves a copy automatically in just minutes. Who do you know who would appreciate one of these?

- Just plug it in and click to save up to 60,000 photos and videos
- Recognizes duplicate image files, saving one copy only
- Saves hours of manually searching and copying images
- Never lose your most valuable and irreplaceable photos
- Works with both Mac and Windows OS
