

Home Page (JA Headshots)

Professional Chicago headshots for aspiring actors, corporate climbers, media and personal profiles... Get yours right here!

Want to make a great first impression? Want to get a head? Then get a headshot from Chicago headshots. Whether you need an impressive profile photograph or just want to make a statement, we have a Chicago headshot photographer that can deliver and exceed on your expectations.

Get an edge over the competition...

Chicago headshots can portray your image in the best possible light giving you a big advantage over your competition, your rivals, and your peers. We can create outstanding corporate headshots in Chicago, putting a distinctive face to the name that could quickly rise through the ranks of entertainment and business.

How to open doors...

We can create exceptional actor headshots in Chicago, helping to create that opening you truly deserve. Chicago headshots can open doors for you in more ways than you could ever imagine. Your headshot is your passport to success. Chicago based acting and corporate headshot photography is our craft. Let's get together. Why not book your free strategy session today? (Link)

We work with new and established actors to help them stay in the limelight and land more exciting parts... what part would you like to get?

Want to become an actor or looking for your next major audition? There's no need to look around you to realize there is a lot of competition out there. However, a professional headshot from Chicago headshots is your ticket to the top. A high quality headshot can influence a director's decision instantly, so make sure it's your headshot they're looking at.

How do you look in front of a camera?

A headshot for actors in Chicago can lead to more opportunities, more openings and ultimately more money. And we should know because we're on the inside. As actors and artists ourselves we've got a firm finger on the pulse. We know what careers are made of and we have a good idea about the perfect shot for you. And that means a headshot that reveals your personality, your character and just how good you will look in front of a live audience or in front of a film camera.

If you really want to stand a good chance of being the director's choice, then give yourself an edge. Your headshot from Chicago headshots could take you places far beyond your own imagination. How far? Book your free strategy session today and find out. (Link)

We work with corporate professionals to help them reach the pinnacle of their careers... how far would you like to go?

Staring at that corporate ladder? Want to climb higher? If you think your face won't fit then you could be doing yourself a major injustice. A Chicago headshot photographer can seriously help by bringing out the very best in your profile picture. Everyone has a photogenic angle that works for them, and because we are specialists, we know how to find it.

Your passport to a rewarding career

We can create a profile photo that you can be proud of and what's more, it could be your passport to a financially rewarding career. You can use your new profile picture wherever you need to be seen, online and offline. Put yourself out there and make a statement. Why not do it today? Start by booking a free strategy session, and see for yourself exactly where your quality headshot could take you. Book now (Link)

About Us (JA Headshots)

Every picture tells a story... let us help create yours

Founded in 2012 by Joshua Albanese, JA Headshots specialize in creating extraordinary and impressive headshots for actors and business professionals. The company now includes a "family" of highly professional photographers.

We are a young company. We will always be a young company because we are always coming up with new and innovative ideas. Fresh ideas that can help you, our most valued client, to get ahead, move forward, and progress in your career and in life. We want to help you grow, reach out, make a statement and get noticed for who you really are.

Our mission is simple. We want to succeed through your success, and we'll go the extra mile to ensure this happens. And it will happen because we possess a combination of professionalism, enthusiasm and devotion to the work we do. Our very existence depends on exposing you in the very best possible light to a waiting world. "One great shot can change the course of your life."

- We don't just talk the talk. We 100% guarantee our client's total satisfaction, otherwise the photoshoot is completely free.
- We also guarantee the very best possible service, exactly as our clients would expect from an uncompromising, high class luxury brand.
- We partner with our clients for life. Every further headshot will be heavily discounted as we build our mutually beneficial long term relationship.
- We work effectively and efficiently. We don't expect our clients to have to wait around until we're ready, we'll always be ready to work with them.
- Welcome to our family. We treat all our clients like they are close, trusted family members. Only the very best service and attention will do.

Your perfect headshot is all that matters and we strive to ensure it will become your passport to a great adventure. It will help set you off on your exciting life journey and guide you through the challenges to a destination of your choosing. Your ultimate headshot will be your beacon, shining brightly over a sea of opportunity, reflecting a high resolution image of your unfolding success. We'll help you stand out from the crowd. "Life is too short to blend in."

There is an end game to our quest for perfection and your total satisfaction. It is our purpose. There are faces out there that desperately need to be seen so that they too can at least have a chance in life.

Orphaned children need the love and security of a family around them. JA Headshots can help bring their plight to the attention of those that are able to offer hope. We simply want to help those unfortunate children to believe that anything is possible. Life is for everyone.