Once again we're going to be revelling in the money with quality, high value bets like these...
25/1... 10/1... 12/1... 9/1... 14/1...

What will you spend your winnings on?

From the desk of Nicky Doyle:

I'm the founder of the highly successful Bet Alchemist betting service, which is now fast approaching its 6th very profitable year, and with membership steadily growing every day.

I've been around horses and betting almost all of my life. My combined insider knowledge and experience, together with my unparalleled analytical skills makes me an extremely valuable person to know, as many of my subscribers will testify...

“Hiya Nick, just had to tell you that because of you, as of today I am a season ticket holder at Arsenal. With your help I have achieved a dream. Thanks for many happy days past and looking forward to many more. Best regards, Gareth

What would several thousands of pounds in additional tax free hard cash mean to you?

The 2017 National Hunt Season is under way and as with previous years, we’re expecting some very exciting action and some very handsome profits as usual.

The fun starts with backing and winning on outsiders with odds like 33/1, 20/1, 16/1, 22/1 and 25/1. You won’t find any low value favourites here... I only deal with high value quality bets.

“Bet Alchemist has achieved consistent wins over the past 6 years making Nicky Doyle one of the most highly respected horse racing tipsters in the business today.”

With average annual profits of 140 points, Bet Alchemist continues to out-perform many other horse racing tipping services, returning an average 15.68% ROI. And now the jump season is here, let’s go make some more serious money...

How we performed last year...

Last year we achieved an impressive 26.51% ROI for our members, which equates to £3,128.15 tax free profit to £50 level stakes. This year we aim to at least match that, although I have every intention of beating that figure... are you with us?

Take a look at these numbers for the 2016-17 NH season alone. This represents highly effective each way betting at its most profitable...

Stop backing losers and low value favourites and find out how I can help you to steadily grow your betting bank with confidence.

Join me today and get on the inside of Bet Alchemist, where I'll provide you with guaranteed winning tips for the coming National Hunt season.

Join us and make this year, your most profitable National Hunt season ever!

Most major meetings and festivals will be covered and I leave nothing to chance. I'll help you make this the most profitable NH season racing you've ever experienced... and that's backed by my no-nonsense 60 day money back guarantee.

Will you be with us on our next winning streak? Here's a quick reminder of what's coming up?

Briefly, in October we have the Old Roan Chase and the Charlie Hall Chase. Then it gets well under way in November with a mounting number of nail biters including the Betfair Chase at Haydock, the JN Wine Champion Chase at Down Royal and the Bet Victor Gold Cup at Cheltenham.

Then there's the Hennessy Gold Cup at Newbury and the Fortria Chase at Navan followed by the Long Distance Hurdle at Newbury.

Bring on the December bonanza when there's always tons of cash up for grabs!

From the 26th - 29th December we have 4 glorious days at Leopardstown for the Christmas Festival and let's not forget the prestigious King George VI Chase on Boxing Day.

December also sees the International Hurdle at Cheltenham and the Becher Chase at Aintree, followed later by the Welsh Grand National at Chepstow.

The Cheltenham Festival in mid-March can throw up some big money-making days for our members, and the whole festival is a lot of fun too. The Gold Cup can be very special!

All these and many more culminating in the Grand National at Aintree, the Irish Grand National at Fairyhouse and the Scottish Grand National at Air Racecourse in April 2018.

All these fixtures have the potential to be massive profit-pulling days for Bet Alchemist members. Will you be in on the action?

Last year we made huge profits from 6 out of 7 of the major festivals.

This year it could prove to be a very memorable and highly profitable time for you too.

Why choose Bet Alchemist?

Here's one good reason...

Bet Alchemist service has been inducted into the Secret Betting Club hall of fame!

An accolade reserved for only the very best tipsters in the business.

Would you really want to trust anyone else?

Being accepted into SBC is no mean feat. It has taken all of 12 months scrutiny of Bet Alchemist bets with proofing and verification procedures at every turn.

However, persistence pays and now the Bet Alchemist service has been added to SBC's trusted, professional Quarterly Tipster Profit Reports.

How did we do it?

Well my expert tipping has proved to be right up there with the very best in UK and Irish tipsters, racking up 17 winning months out of the last 21, since December 2015.

Does it get any better than that? Oh yes it does...

60 Day, 100% No Quibble, Full Money Back Guarantee!

That's right... join Bet Alchemist today and if within 60 days you have not increased your betting profits or I have not delivered as I promised then just let me know...

However, I must stress that my system has nothing do with any instant wins or get-rich-quick formulas. If you're looking for instant riches then this is not for you!

What I am offering you is regular profits over the longer term and that means a commitment from you to stay with me at least for the duration of the NH season. If you can commit then I promise I will deliver profits for you.

I only want my members to be completely happy with my service... but you must remember, my strategy is about building up a large bank over time.

Remember! This is not a Get Rich Quick type of business... if one of those even exists.

I'm not offering you riches beyond your wildest imagination and I'm not promising you anything I cannot realistically deliver.

There will be losses for sure. Nobody can 100% predict the outcome of every single race. If they could they would become a multi-millionaire in no time and then be banned from every bookmaker in the country. Let's keep it real.

What I am offering you is an honest and dependable tipping service with a steady and very profitable return.

Just take a look at the results from the last 2 seasons...

We had a bit of a sticky November but then more than made up for it over the next 5 months in a row...

Of course, Bet Alchemist provides superior tipping services all year round but get in now and you'll join us in what I and many other Bet Alchemist members consider to be the most exciting period of the horse racing calendar. It can be the most profitable too!

If you love horse racing as much as we do, then don't you just love it when you get a BIG win?

We all bet to win so why not give yourself an edge by getting some real proven, professional advice from someone who constantly has their ear to the ground... and spends many hours watching race replays and analysing form.

Let's be clear... Bet Alchemist is for punters who want to win consistently, not chancers who hope to make a quick buck.

If building regular, steady profits appeals to you then join us today... you'll be covered by my personal guarantee... so you have absolutely nothing to lose.

Our existing members know and understand the real value of a long term betting strategy. It's an investment not a gamble.

Here's what some of our existing members are saying...

"Good evening Nicky - and yes, it is another very good evening! Last Saturday, three winners at 11/2, 6/1 and 8/1 - and today, Capri at 10/1 and

*Tony the Great also at 10/1. What can I say except that you remain simply one of the very best, especially when you are dipping into Ireland! As ever, thank you"... Patrick

"I have to say your selections are outstanding on the weekends. I'm sure lots of your followers are betting with major confidence. Long may it continue. Many thanks"... Darren

*"Dear Nicky, Many congratulations on today's selections, I hope you are feeling pleased with yourself, as you should be! We all live a hope for a nice big win day and mine certainly came today as I had the doubles on as well, most I have won - ever. Well done and good to receive your selections."... Greg

Join other Bet Alchemist members who have won 84.62 points in 2017 so far... and that doesn't even include the new NH season figures.

So how do I do it? How do I manage to keep picking winners month after month?

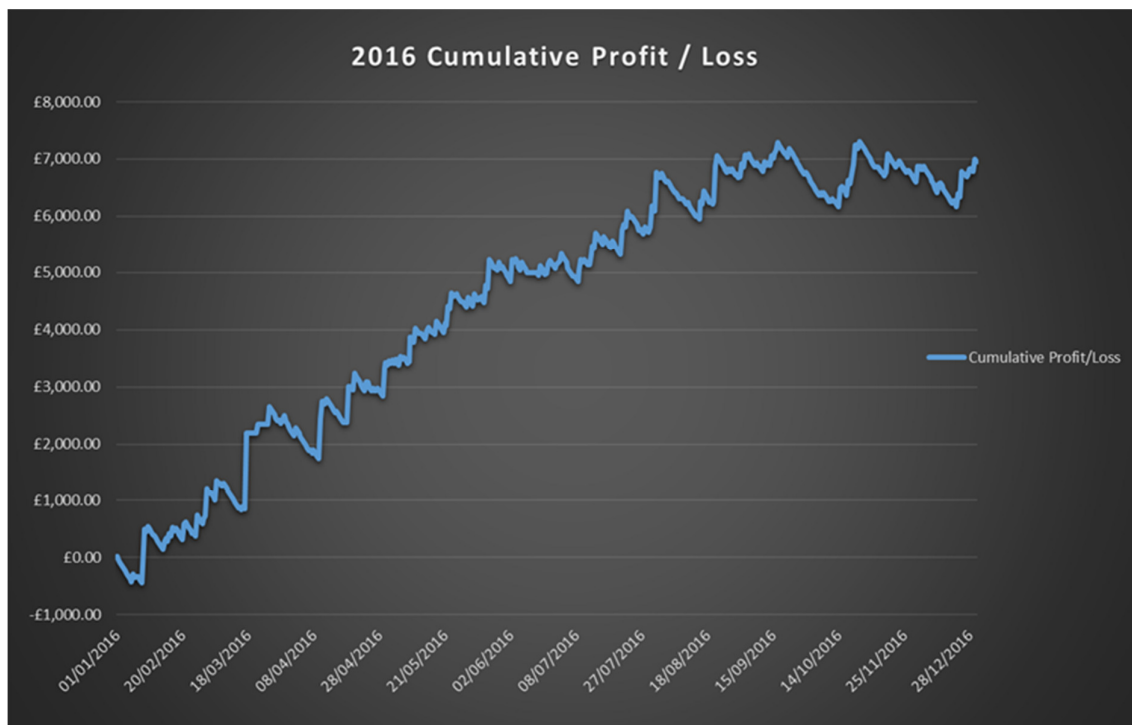

Okay, it might sound a bit boring but I spend many hours analysing... everything. I know... I know... people do tell me to "get a life", but to be honest this is my life.

I love analysing form, statistics, handicap ratings, ground conditions, horse age, jockey's weight, trainer's abilities and many more aspects, any of which could be the difference between a resounding win and a miserable loss.

It should come as no surprise then that I also work part-time as a computer analyst.

That's right... the job I do depends on extremely accurate analysis, and so I have become accustomed to thinking analytically.

Here are some actual 2016 statistics you might want to analyse yourself...

Over £7,000 in profit from £50 stakes... beats working for a living!

Here are some more facts about Bet Alchemist...

Members have banked 768.45 points profit from 2011 to 2016
Average of 9.33 profitable months every year

Average price of winning selections is 9/1

Average stake of just 1 point win or 0.5 point Each Way

Usually 7 - 9 bets per week, which easily manageable by most people.

Consistent Profits Built Over Time

I don't know about you, but I hate to lose. And, if I advise you to put a bet on any horse in any race you can be sure I'll be backing that selection too. We're all in this together!

Persistent form study and patience always pays off...

I discovered many years ago that winning on horse racing is all about form study and the patience to wait until the right bet comes along. By that I mean everything must fall into place. The horse, the odds, the course, the weather... everything.

Unlike many other "tipsters", I leave nothing to chance. After all, it's our hard-earned money at stake. If I get it wrong then the bookmakers stand to benefit and I couldn't stand the thought of giving them my cash.

I'm sure you know what I mean.

I see so many punters lose their money at the meetings and festivals I attend. Then they chase their bets only to lose again and again.

I know it's the trill of being at the races, taking in the occasion and enjoying the atmosphere, but isn't it all that much sweeter when you win?

I prefer to walk away with my pockets bulging with cash rather than a few dead betting slips... don't you?

You can ask anyone who knows me and they'll tell you straight, I don't just talk the talk. Here's some examples of my successes...

Here's what one of our members says about Bet Alchemist...

“Hi Nicky, my only fear nowadays is being closed down, with all four of the services in my portfolio winning over the last four months I only have William Hill, Bet365 and Corals unrestricted!!!

My profit since June is around £8000 to unit stakes of only £40, £30, £20 and £10 on my chosen horse gurus!!!"

*... John

When you're taking so much money from the bookies and you're worried about getting closed down... it's not worth worrying about. Instead, worry about what you're going to spend all your tax free money on.

There are plenty of bookmakers out there willing to take your bets and there's always Betfair to fall back on should you get "gubbed" by any of your High Street bookies.

When you get into the member's area you can expect to see my recommended selections, which will look like this...

Advised Friday Night - 15th April

April 15, 2016 / in Selections /

Racecourse & Time	Advised Stake & Bet Type	Name of Horse to Back
Ayr - 16:10	1/2 Point Each Way	Vincente
Current Odds:
20/1 Paddy Power, Betfair Sportsbook both 5 places else 6/1 generally look for 5 places
Compare odds at http://www.oddschecker.com/horse-racing
Selection Reasoning:
Vincente looks overpriced for this race and a win would be a massive help to Paul Nicholls in his battle to regain the lead in the Trainers Championship from Willie Mullins. The market has Measureofmydreams 10/1 favourite and it just doesn't make sense that Vincente is double those odds carrying the same weight. The key form line is their latest run in the National Hunt Chase at Cheltenham over four miles.
Vincente was travelling nicely down the hill to the 3rd last but was stopped by a loose over that 3rd last fence losing ground at a crucial point in the race. He stayed on well but was unable to get back into the race subsequently. He's a novice and learning and if he can iron out the odds jumping error can be very competitive carrying just 11-3 thanks to Cause of Causes showing up here and top weight. Vincente beat Un Temp Pour Tout around Cheltenham at the November Meet giving the runner up 8lbs. If Vincente puts in a performance like that he will go very close to winning this race where novices go very well.

The above selection refers to an example, which was posted for the Scottish National at Ayr, where I and my fellow Bet Alchemist members enjoyed revelling in a really nice win.

Ayr - Vincente - 20/1 Winner

By joining us at Bet Alchemist you'll experience some losses but overall you'll win more than you lose. It's as simple as that. That's exactly what you want, I'm sure... but you'll also win more over the longer term too. That makes Bet Alchemist the perfect INVESTMENT.

If you think of your membership as an investment rather than just a tipping service, you'll get into the right frame of mind for making regular profits. That's what we do.

Regular profits means a regular secondary income... for all of us. Come and be a part of it. Get you name down today.

Still Not Sure? Got Questions?

Check out these FAQs

How Do I Get Access to Selections?

The selections are posted in your member's area under the 'Today's Selections' link. You will have to log into your members' area to get them. An email is sent to members as soon as new selections are published on the website.

Do You Advise Size of Stake on Each Selection?

Win selections stakes are normally advised to 1 point (and very occasionally to 2 points). Each way selections stakes are normally advised to 0.5 point each way.

Will Bet Alchemist Increase My Betting Profits?

Yes, Nicky sure will be giving it 100% as he backs all selections himself to large stakes ~£300 a point. It's just a matter of managing your betting bank and patience while waiting for big priced winners

When Selections Are Made Available to Members?

The Selections are usually available from 7pm the previous night with Members emailed to inform them that 'New Bets' have gone live.

I always let you know the date and time of the next scheduled bets at the end of each new update as well as including it in each email to members.

On some occasions Member's Selections will be at 10:15am on the day of racing due to the bookies not pricing up those particular races until same day as racing. However, that is in the minority of cases.

How Should I Back Them?

To some degree, this is up to you. However, I strongly advise you follow the recommended stakes advised with each bet. Generally, we bet 1/2 Point Each Way over 5/1 and 1 Point Win below 5/1.

If we have a very strong fancy it will be double stakes at 1 Point Each Way or 2 Points Win.

How is Bet Alchemist Different From All The Others?

We're different in that Nicky backs all selections advised and posts the results online within 24 hours. Very few if any betting services post their full results for the public to view on their website.

Existing members ensure all is above board and selections are proofed to Race Advisor & Racing-Index too! We have nothing to hide unlike some others out there.

How Many Selections Will There Be?

That all depends on the quality and number of race meetings/festivals on that Month. On average we bet around 50 selections a Month.

The busiest time is during the Spring Festivals like Cheltenham, Aintree & Punchestown or Royal Ascot, Galway & Glorious Goodwood during the summer.

Are Selections Win Only, Each Way or a Combination?

The quick answer here is that most bets are each way as we back value selections mostly at 5/1 above.

Past Results have shown each way betting to slightly outperform win only bets which is against conventional wisdom of most punters! Traditional bookies are best for each way betting but if you have enough patience then win only betting using Betfair or Betfair SP will deliver good profits as well.

I have had several bookie accounts restricted or closed so at times it's best practice to hop in the car and visit a bookie shop and place my bet using good old cash to guarantee I get a price.

Stay disciplined and rather than accept a lesser price online get your bet on any which way at the highest prices as long term your profits will be much higher.

What About A Betting Bank?

Great Question, A betting bank of 80 to 100 points is recommended to comfortably see out bad runs.

Most bets are placed leading into and during the Cheltenham Festival and after that there are never too many outstanding Ante Post Bets Active at any given time.

For Example if your stake is £20 per Selection then your betting bank of 100 points would be £2000.

What Prices Are We Betting At?

We love big field handicaps when juicy double digit prices can be found and backed each way.

Two recent winning examples are Vincente at 20/1 in the Scottish Grand National & Eastlake 22/1 winning the Topham Chase at the Aintree Festival.
